

Celebrating the Ash

A 'walk through woods and words' in Ashclyst Forest

Mon 7th Oct, 13:30 - 15:30

Led by poet Chris Waters and botanist Dr Sue Holland

- Linger among the trees to be with the beauty and wisdom of a range of specially-curated poems.
- We will walk at an ambling pace for about 2 hours. There will be time and places to sit and enjoy the woods.
- Please bring your own refreshments.

Meet at What 3 Words
///spite.riverboat.proofread

Suggested donation £10
Book at www.creativebeings.uk/courses

© Robert Darch

Chris Waters lives in Devon and his career has included being a storyteller for the National Trust. He has 4 published poetry collections and has won prizes in national competitions. Chris enjoys live readings and often collaborates with musicians.

Sue Holland is a facilitator and Botanist who is growing an agroecology Food Forest in East Devon, for biodiversity. She is a director of Creative Beings CIC.

